

Terms for Selected Participants

- Provision of photographs and artists statement for promotional use by the City of Rockville.
- Signed agreement between the City of Rockville and the artist for the showcase opportunity specifying date, time, location and on-site support provided.
- Provision of all specialty equipment needed for presentation (musical instruments). Sound systems may be available from the City of Rockville.

Promotion

All selected participants will be showcased via events that are actively promoted through the many City of Rockville resources: printed publications and event fliers, web site, The Rockville Channel 11, and press releases.

3rd Annual Celebration of

Showcasing Opportunity for Artists

The City of Rockville Cultural Arts Commission and the Arts Division of the Department of Recreation and Parks are sponsoring an initiative TO DISCOVER NEW LOCAL ARTISTS and to arrange a public venue for their work, where the community will be invited to attend. This program is intended to give public exposure to gifted artists while promoting and sharing the wide wealth of regional talent with our greater Rockville community.

Eligibility

OPEN TO ALL – We are looking for artists and artist groups working in all disciplines:

- Visual artists (painters, sculptors, photographers, filmmakers, etc.)
- Literary artists (poets, novelists, storytellers, etc.)
- Performing artists (musicians, singers, actors, dancers, comedians, etc.)
- Multidisciplinary artists
- Arts-related speakers

Entry Requirements

NO ENTRY FEE. Complete the attached application form and return it with requested materials by 5 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 31, 2008.

Venues

TO BE DETERMINED PER EACH APPLICATION. All selected artists will be provided appropriate venues. City of Rockville facilities such as Rockville Senior Center, Rockville Town Square and parks will be used via existing offerings as well as new arts-based programs and special events (festivals, concert series and exhibits).

Selection Process

A panel of artists and members of the Cultural Arts Commission will carefully review all applications and submitted materials. Working with City staff, our goal is to accommodate as many qualified applicants as possible with new opportunities to showcase their talents. Preference will be given to artists living, working or attending school in Rockville but all area artists are encouraged to apply.
